Archaeological Dig and Tours

On September 25-26, 2021, the ASNJ, in partnership with the Middlesex County Office of Arts and History, will be conducting an archaeological open house at the 1741 home of Cornelius Low at 1225 River Road, Piscataway, New Jersey. The open house will last between 12:00 and 4:00 each day (weather permitting) and will consist of site tours. Volunteer opportunities are available to current ASNJ members who would like to get their hands dirty, help dig and look for artifacts. Parking is available at Lot 48 opposite the Rutgers Busch Campus Visitor Center on Sutphen Road north of the Low House. A sidewalk next to the athletic fields connects the parking lot to the Low House.

Volunteer member opportunities are limited and subject to a first-come, first-served basis and will be from 8:00am-4:00pm both days. If you are interested in volunteering, please visit our website at www.asnj.org for membership information and a link to our online sign up form. Please direct questions to asofnj@gmail.com.
